THE MICROCOSM OF LONDON; or, London in Miniature. With 104 Illustrations in Colour by PUGIN and ROWLANDSON. In 3 vols. small 4to. £3 3s. net.

PORCELAIN. By EDWARD DILLON. With 19 Plates in Colour, 20 in Collotype, and 5 in Photogravure, wide royal 8vo, 25s. net. [The Connoisseur's Library.
The history of Porcelain both in the Far East and in the West. It has been the purpose of the author to dwell upon the commanding position that China has occupied in that history, and to illustrate as far as possible the steps by which the Porcelain of China found its way to the adjacent lands of Corea and Japan, as well as to the nearer East, and finally to Europe. The importance of a thorough understanding of the technical side of the subject has been constantly borne in mind.

PALIO AND PONTE. A Book of Tuscan Games. By W. HEYWOOD. Illustrated. Royal 8vo, 21s. net.
This work treats of the athletic sports of mediæval Italy, and especially of that ultimate survival of the old chivalric games, the Palio of Siena—half battle and half horse-race—which is still celebrated twice a year with much of its ancient pomp and circumstance. Separate chapters are devoted to the kindred sports of neighbouring cities, such as the Giuoco del Ponte of Pisa, the Calcio (or football) of Florence, and the Battle of Stones of Perugia. The contents give an idea of its scope.

GASPARD DE COLIGNY. By A. W. WHITEHEAD. With many Illustrations and Maps. Demy 8vo, 12s. 6d. net.
This work gives an account of the life of the great Huguenot both before and during the wars of religion. Supplementary chapters deal with Coligny's efforts to colonise the New World, the problems of the Massacre of St. Bartholomew, and the causes of the rise and fall of Huguenotism. In addition to well-known sources and the work of Continental scholars, the author draws throughout on unpublished material, especially the voluminous correspondence of the Italian ambassadors in the various State archives.

A HISTORY OF ROME: During the Later Republic and the Early Principate. By A. H. J. GREENIDGE, M.A. In 6 vols. Vol. I. (133-104 B.C.) With Maps. Demy 8vo, 10s. 6d. net.
Messrs. Methuen will shortly commence the publication of a history of Rome from the period of Tiberius Gracchus to the accession of Vespasian. Mr. Greenidge has planned this history on an elaborate scale, and each volume will contain approximately 500 demy 8vo pages. It is to be a general history of the period in the widest sense of the words. The author has consciously imposed no limitations on himself. Social life, military history, politics, law, personal narrative, eventually literature, will all be represented. But above all the author wishes the book to be a psychological analysis of the characters and motives of individuals. It is also to be a work of reference on a minute scale. Every important passage from original authorities bearing on every event mentioned in the text is to be referred to in the footnotes. The reader will have to accept very few statements as articles of faith.
Vol. I. includes the history of about thirty years, from Tiberius Gracchus to the second consulship of Marius (133-104 B.C.).

RICHARD HURRELL FROUDE. By L. I. GUINEY. Illustrated. Demy 8vo, 10s. 6d. net.
The materials of this book are drawn from sources unknown to this generation. There is a long memoir, containing scores of letters; a mass of excerpts from printed reminiscences and reviews forms the second section of the book. Hurrell Froude (1803-1836) was the eldest brother of Mr. James Anthony Froude, famous in the earliest days of the Oxford Movement, and, while he lived, Newman's closest friend. The book is less biographic than critically synthetic: "rearranged material," as the Preface says, "for the study of a temperament." And a most distinctive temperament it is.

THE LIFE OF FATHER IGNATIUS, O.S.B. By the BARONESS DE BERTOUCH. Illustrated. Demy 8vo, 10s. 6d. net.
This biography is written by the authority and under the supervision of Father Ignatius himself. It contains a faithful record of his remarkable life and an analysis of his simple but much misrepresented doctrines. Not the least interesting chapters of the volume are those which deal with the mysterious or supernatural manifestations which have appeared to the monk during various periods of his life.

THIRD EDITION.

THE COMPLETE MOTORIST. By FILSON YOUNG. With 138 Illustrations. Demy 8vo, 12s. 6d. net.
"A better book of the sort we do not expect to see. It is modestly written, yet as full of valuable and practical information as any textbook; technically sound, with the knowledge that only experience can supply, yet as picturesque, as romantic, as literary, and as genuinely interesting as any novel."—Athenæum.
"This very practical book abounds with humour and wisdom, and it is written in vigorous and expressive English. All these virtues are rare, even singly. In combination they are the more welcome. It is a book in which technical knowledge and literary skill go hand in hand."—Times.

THE DUKE OF DEVONSHIRE. By HENRY LEACH. With 12 Illustrations. Demy 8vo, 12s. 6d. net.
This is a personal and political biography, being the first attempt to present to readers a record of the Duke's career.

SECOND EDITION IN THE PRESS.

MY CHINESE NOTE-BOOK. By Lady SUSAN TOWNLEY. With 16 Illustrations and 2 Maps. Demy 8vo, 10s. 6d. net.

(2) General Appearance of the Villages and Towns—Intercommunication. (3) Conditions of Society in the Country—the Interior of a Town. (4) Trade, Commerce, and Industry in the Towns. (5) The Inhabitants of the Towns. (6) Economic Transition in the Time of Mary—the Reformation and the National Character.

CELTIC ART. By J. ROMILLY ALLEN, F.S.A. With numerous Illustrations and Plans. Demy 8vo, 7s. 6d. net. [The Antiquary's Books.

MY DEVON YEAR. By EDEN PHILLPOTTS. With 38 Illustrations by J. Ley Pethybridge. Large crown 8vo, 6s.

THE EPISTLE OF S. JAMES. Edited, with Introduction and Notes, by R. J. KNOWLING, M.A., Professor of New Testament Exegesis at King's College, London. Demy 8vo, 6s. [Westminster Commentaries.

THE GETTING WELL OF DOROTHY. By Mrs. W. K. CLIFFORD, Author of "Anyhow Stories." Illustrated by GORDON BROWNE. Crown 8vo, 3s. 6d.
"A story of great charm. A chronicle of child-life written for children which stands apart from the mass of such books by its brightness, refinement, and insight into the mind of a child. It is wholesome, and tuned to that chord of tender sentiment on which Mrs. Clifford's touch is always true and skilful."—Times.

A BOOK OF REMEMBRANCE. By ELIZABETH GODFREY. Fcap. 8vo, 2s. 6d. net.
"A Book of Remembrance" is not a birthday book, neither is it a collection of familiar quotations or didactic snippets; its aim is to give some choice lyric for every day, several chosen for special days, all more or less in the mood of the month to which they belong. Together with familiar favourities are rarities old and new, the latter chosen largely from Irish sources, and from what may be described as the plein-air school of verse.

BRYAN KING. By W. CROUCH. With a Portrait. Crown 8vo, 3s. 6d. net.
The subject of this Memoir is best known as formerly Rector of St. George's in the East at the time of the notorious riots that took place in that Church, a full account of which is given in the Memoir. It will interest many to learn how practices which are now almost universally accepted in the Church of England were the ostensible cause of the riots, and were bitterly opposed by the authorities in Church and State. Mr. G. W. E. Russell has written an Introduction.

GOETHE. By H. G. ATKINS. With 12 Illustrations. Fcap. 8vo, cloth, 3s. 6d.; leather, 4s. net. [Little Biographies

THE WISDOM OF THE DESERT. By J. O. HANNAY, M.A. Crown 8vo, 3s. 6d. net.
In attempting an appreciation of the religious life of the Egyptian hermits, the author makes use of the hitherto almost unknown collections of anecdotes which exist in Greek and Latin.

THE TAMING OF THE SHREW. By WILLIAM SHAKESPEARE. Edited by R. W. BOND. Demy 8vo, 3s. 6d. [The Arden Shakespeare.

A LITTLE GALLERY OF MILLAIS. With 20 Plates, in Photogravure. Pott 8vo, 2s. 6d. net. [The Little Galleries.

A JAPANESE NIGHTINGALE. By ONOTO WATANNA. Author of "The Heart of Hyacinth," "The Wooing of Wistaria," &c. With Coloured Illustrations.

ARCHERS OF THE LONG BOW. By ARTHUR MOORE, Author of "The Knight Punctilious," &c.

"A delightfully absurd story. . . . This a really bright, entertaining tale; fresh and attractive."—Globe.

"Glorious farce. It is not often that we are so fortunate as to meet with a book of such healthy, irresponsible fun. . . . Anyone who wishes to enjoy the pleasure of a hearty, spontaneous laugh should obtain a copy and read it without delay."—Daily News.

THE BANDOLERO. Py PAUL GWYNNE. Author of "Marta," &c.

"A truly brilliant series of pictures representing for the most part the life of farmers and brigands in the mountains not far from Seville . . . a book that forces us to think of its writer as a novelist deserving to stand high among contemporary writers of fiction . . . not often do we come upon so certain a mingling of the brilliant and the mellow."—Literary World.

"A stirring tale of love and adventure, full of dramatic situations."—Land and Water.

VERANILDA. By GEORGE GISSING. Author of "The Private Papers of Henry Ryecroft," &c. Second Edition.

"His grand, beautiful story, so scholarly, without one single disconcerting suggestion of pedantry, will lift his readers out of their own day and their own several grooves, and will transport them into that vanished era of the old world . . . with power which makes us feel that the author's gift really was genius. We are glad to have this noble work."—World.

Mr. H. G. Wells, says in the Sphere:—"Gissing's maturest, latest, and most deliberately conceived book. . . . The book which lay nearest his heart during the latest years of his life."
